

YORK REGIONAL POLICE SERVICE

The following excerpt is from the bottom of page 56 and top of page 57 of my statement:

On January 13, 2010, I applied to YRP (Exhibit 79) and the very next day received a phone call from the recruiter, Gary Crawford (#419), advising that I was not eligible to apply since I had not completed my probationary period with the OPP, even though I had my Ontario Police College diploma (with 91.6 average and 100% on the Ontario Police Fitness Award) and was not applying as an experienced officer. Gary Crawford further said, "I will be shocked if any other police service hired you". When I heard that I was not eligible to even apply for a position of a Constable, I felt like I was a criminal. I invested a lot of work into getting the job of a police officer, studying at the Ontario Police College, training at the Provincial Police Academy, and working very hard in the 11 months on the road with the OPP (Exhibit 47a, Exhibit 47b, Exhibit 47c, Exhibit 47d) and after all that I was a tainted meat – one that was not even eligible to apply with other police services. A couple of days later, after I had somewhat recovered from the shock, I contacted Cst. Tapp. With Cst. Tapp's help I have been working on preparing my case and my application to the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario.

Between January, 2010 and July, 2010 I corresponded with the Ontario Power Generation (Exhibit 82 and Exhibit 78b), Toronto Police Service (Exhibit 78a, Exhibit 80, Exhibit 81, and Exhibit 83), Peel Regional Police Service (Exhibit 84), Durham Regional Police Service and Halton Regional Police Service (Exhibit 85). Though the Ontario Power Generation, Toronto PS and Halton PS allowed me to apply for a position of Nuclear Security Officer and Constable as a new applicant, respectively, they all turned me down in the early stages of the hiring process (Exhibit 80, Exhibit 82, Exhibit 83, and Exhibit 85).

Hi Gary,

Shawn MacDonald here. Not sure if you remember me, I worked at York for 8 yrs in Newmarket and now with the O.P.P. I was talking with Bill Lumley and he gave me your email.

I just wanted to speak to you about a direct hire possibility. Michael Jack works here in Peterborough County O.P.P. He has spoken to me about York and is interested in working there. I have told him that it is an excellent force to work for. I don't work with Mike but have met him a couple of times. He has a wide cultural background and fluent in several languages. He has attributes that would not be utilized with the O.P.P.

Anyways, if you wouldn't mind Mike contacting you to see what steps he can take to be successful in being hired by York. I know he would like to speak with you and discuss things further.

Appreciate your help.

Take care,

Shawn

Hi Mike,

Thanks for responding to the invitation to testing for May 25 at noon. You can never have too many certifications in First Aid. Regarding your question regarding the Employment section in the Security Clearance Forms, it is perfectly acceptable to prepare a separate sheet like you have done.

Subject: Re: Confirmation OPG Personal Interview 889

Danny,

I am not sure if I need to respond to this. In any case, I am confirming my attendance on May 25 at noon.

Thank you for answering my questions in the previous email. I took St. John Ambulance First Aid + CPR Level C this weekend. Now I have 3 First Aid certificates :)

I do have yet another question. In the Employment section in the security clearance form there is insufficient room to list all my employments over the last 10 years and there was no Additional Information form specifically for Employment in the security package. I prepared a separate sheet listing all my employments in the past 10 years which I intend to submit along with the rest of the forms. Would that be ok?

Thank you

Michael

Subject: A few questions

Hello Mr. Lloyd,

I have started doing the paperwork and have a few questions. I realize that it might be a bit early for me to ask some of the questions as I have not received an invitation for a personal interview yet, but I have time on my hands and I like being proactive. So if I may my questions are as follows:

1. In the Documentation Requested section in the Applicant Information Sheet I am required to submit copies of Birth Certificate/Proof of Citizenship. Am I required to submit copies of either one or of both?
2. The special instructions section #4 in the Applicant Information Sheet dictates that OPG only accepts Standard First Aid and Level "C" CPR through qualified St. John's Ambulance instruction. Other accreditation will not be accepted.

I currently hold two Standard First Aid and Level "C" CPR certificates:

- o Canadian Red Cross (Expiry date: February 21, 2011)
- o Rescue 7 (Expiry date: December 31, 2012)

Could you please advise me if my certifications meet the OPG requirements?

3. For my hearing and vision tests do I have to book an appointment with a specialist from the contact list that was provided to me on the physical fitness testing day (none of which are located near the city of my residence - Peterborough) or can I be examined by a local specialist?

Thank you

Michael

Garnet Rickard Invite Confirmation
Invitation to Attend Fitness and Psychological Testing

April 7, 2010

You have been invited to attend the initial Fitness and Psychological Testing for the position of a Nuclear Response Force qualified Nuclear Security Officer at Ontario Power Generation (OPG).

Your testing has been scheduled for Sunday May 2, 2010 at 0800 hours and will take approximately 4 hours to complete. Testing will be conducted at the following address:

Bowmanville, Ontario

Prior to accepting this invitation, it is imperative that you perform a "Self Assessment" to determine if you are capable of meeting the requirements for the position. For example, review the attached Fitness Testing documents and test yourself to see if you are able to achieve the minimum requirements of 80% in each component of the test. You should also visit the Ministry of Community Safety and Corrections Services website at www.mcscs.jus.gov.on.ca and review the medical, vision and hearing requirements. To obtain this information, click on the Constable Selection tab and then the "Self Assess - Medical Requirements for Candidates" (PDF).

Applicants selected to attend the initial fitness testing are required to provide two copies of their up to date resume' on the date of testing.

Prior to an offer of employment being issued, you must meet the following requirements:

- * Must be eligible to work in Canada
- * Must possess a valid Drivers License with full driving privileges
- * Be able to obtain and maintain a Level II Security Clearance
- * Possess current St. John's Ambulance certification in both Standard First Aid and CPR (Level "C")
- * Have or be able to obtain and maintain a valid Unrestricted Firearms Possession and Acquisition License (PAL)

In an effort to streamline the recruiting process and meet the timelines set down by the Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission (CNSC), the Recruiting Office is requesting that prospective applicants successfully complete a Canadian Firearms Safety Course (CFSC) thereby obtaining a Possession and Acquisition Licence (PAL). Successful applicants must be in possession of a PAL prior to being rostered on the Basic Tactical Orientation Course (BTOC). Failure to do so will result in members being excluded from commencing training and future deployment as a Nuclear Response Force Officer, until such time as this step is completed. Therefore, we recommend that your immediate attention be given to this stage of the process. Applicants must register for a PAL course by Tuesday May 11, 2010 and be in possession of a Possession and Acquisition License prior to any offer of employment by Ontario Power Generation.

Applicants residing in the Greater Toronto Area (GTA) East who wish to complete the Canadian Firearms Safety Course are encouraged to contact Mr. Jim Novokowski. Interested applicants must pre-book this course by contacting Mr. Novokowski directly through his e-mail address of jimnovi@rogers.com or by telephoning him at (905) 240-0087. Mr. Novokowski advises that he has two dates for the Non-Restricted (OPG and CNSC Requirement) PAL Course, Sunday April 11, 2010 and Saturday May 1, 2010. He will also be conducting a Restricted (Not Required by OPG and the CNSC) PAL Course on Sunday May 2, 2010 at a reduced cost to those who have enrolled in the Non-Restricted thru Mr. Novokowski. To be clear and as indicated above, Ontario Power Generation and the Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission only require applicants to possess/obtain a Non-Restricted Possession and Acquisition License. Applicants may wish to enrol in the Restricted PAL Course for personal interest only. Applicants who are not available to attend on these dates may wish to make alternate arrangements with Mr. Novokowski through the aforementioned email address or telephone number.

Applicants residing in the Belleville area are encouraged to contact Mr. Al Borger directly through his e-mail address of albertborger10@sympatico.ca or by telephoning him at (613) 968-3325.

Applicants residing in the Durham Region, Peterborough and Cobourg/Port Hope area are encouraged to contact Sam Kim directly through his e-mail address of bigsamkim@gmail.com<mailto:bigsamkim@gmail.com> or by telephoning him at (416) 409-2401. Mr. Kim resides in the Fraseville area, east of Highway #115 and south of Peterborough.

Applicants may obtain further testing venues relating to the PAL by visiting the "Canadian Firearms Program" website at www.cfc-cafc.gc.ca. Upon entering the site click on "Firearms Safety Training" located in the left column, then click "Safety Training Links", located in the right column. You will then be directed to a screen entitled "Visit Web Site Now". Entering the site will provide you with the names and telephone numbers of PAL instructors throughout Canada.

Following completion of the Canadian Firearms Safety Course (CFSC) the paperwork is forwarded to the Ontario Provincial Police (O.P.P.) for provincial approval. Upon completion of an O.P.P. assessment, the paperwork will be returned by the O.P.P. to the applicant. At this point in time, applicants are encouraged to photocopy all of the documentation returned to them from the O.P.P. and retain a copy for their own records. The OPG Nuclear Response Force Recruitment Office will require a copy of said documentation at a later date. The applicant must then forward the original paperwork to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (R.C.M.P.) in Miramichi, New Brunswick for final processing. Due to federal guidelines surrounding mandatory wait times, as well as the high volume of applications, applicants have been encountering significant delays in receiving their PAL Card. As such, the Recruitment Team at OPG suggests that applicants initiate the CFSC process as soon as possible.

On your test day, please bring a completed "Par-Q and You" questionnaire and if necessary, a completed "Par-Med-X". These documents are attached to this invitation and it is important to note that if you answer yes to any question on the "Par-Q and You" questionnaire, you must have a physician complete a "Par-Med-X" form. You must also bring valid photo identification (i.e. Ontario Driver's License) with you and present it to the OPG testing team for identification verification purposes.

Upon successful completion of the Fitness Test, you will be required to complete two Psychological Tests which will assist OPG in determining your suitability for the above noted position.

Applicants who successfully complete the fitness testing and the two initial psychological tests, may be scheduled to attend a personal interview at a later date. Scheduling of Personal Interviews will not take place on the day of testing, however applicants will be notified in advance of the scheduled date and time assigned for their personal interview. Personal Interviews are tentatively scheduled to take place between Monday May 17, 2010 and Friday June 4, 2010.

Applicants selected to advance beyond the personal interview stage will be required to attend further Psychological Testing on Saturday June 12, 2010. In addition, Clinical Interviews with the Psychologists are tentatively scheduled to take place on Tuesday June 22, Wednesday June 23 and Thursday June 24, 2010. Individual dates and times for Clinical Interviews will be determined at a later date.

Please confirm your intentions to attend / not attend the initial Fitness and Psychological Testing phase by responding to Danny Lloyd at danny.lloyd@opg.com

Upon receipt of your confirmation to attend testing, the Recruiting Office will forward additional instructions and directions to the testing facility.

Failure to respond to this invitation within 7 days may void this invitation, and any future Ontario Power Generation Nuclear Response Force employment opportunities.

On July 15, 2010, I spoke on the phone (416-808-0627) with D/Cst. Darryl Mcconnell from the employment bureau of the Toronto Police Service. He advised me that I could not apply with the TPS until at least a year has passed from the day of my resignation from the OPP, which would be December 15, 2010. After that date I could re-apply with the TPS and then I might be considered by the TPS as a new applicant.

Sgt. Sherk,

I received correspondence from Consulate General of Israel in Toronto advising me that my Police certificate information has been forwarded to the office I requested, which is to you. The mail was sent on August 3, 2010. Could you please let me know if you got it

Thank you

Michael

I will forward it to you.

Thanks.

Sgt. Sherk,

Thank you for your help. I received a phone call from D/Cst. Darryl Mcconnell from the background investigation bureau. He advised me that I could not apply with TPS until a year has passed from the date of my resignation from the OPP at which point I could reapply with TPS again. I am not sure at the moment if I am going to do that or not but I am wondering if you could keep my police clearance certificate on file or perhaps just simply forward it to me.

Thank you

Michael

Michael,

This is fine. I will ensure I forward it appropriately.

Thanks.

Sgt. Scherk,

This email is just a quick follow up on my application with the TPS.

Though I have not heard from the TPS yet regarding my application (I truly hope I will one day) I have completed the WellServe immunization schedule and as per the advice of Cst. Verrette I requested a police clearance certificate from the Consulate General of Israel (I permanently resided in Israel from 1990 to 2000). Since Consulate General of Israel would not release the police certificate to the applicant but rather forward it to the organization that required it I provided your contact information:

As I had not other alternatives I hope it is ok with you. Could you please advise me when you receive it? I would greatly appreciate that.

Thank you
Michael

Hi Sgt. Scherk,

Thank you for getting back to me so promptly. I have put together an application package and I am planning to drop it off in person on Monday, June 7th. I have called you a few times over the past two days but did not get hold of you. I was hoping to ask a few questions. I left you a couple of voice messages. I would like to speak with you over the phone again before I travel to Toronto on Monday if possible.

Thank you

Michael

Hi Michael,

Further to our conversation from yesterday...nothing prevents you from applying to the Toronto Police Service.

Also, I was thinking about the timelines that you discussed with me regards your enquiries with York Regional Police. If you had made enquiries while you were still employed with the O.P.P. then the information that they gave you is correct. They would not be able to hire you as a lateral applicant but I believe that now that you are not currently employed by the O.P.P. then you are eligible to make application to them as well.

I wish you the best of luck.

Sgt. Scherk,

My name is Michael Jack. I am a former OPP officer. I resigned from the OPP in December 2009 just a month before the end of my probationary period. I resigned from the OPP because I was not meeting the requirements for my employment status to be changed from probationary to permanent.

I am a Russian Jew. I was never welcome at the detachment where I was posted. I know for a fact that I was discriminated against because I was not local. I was not allowed to pass my probationary period no matter how hard I worked.

I am looking for a multicultural police service that would be willing to hire me and where I would blend in and not stand out with my racial background. I have numerous skills (please see attached resume and transcripts).

My question is as follows: Having not cleared the probationary period with the OPP, would I be still eligible to apply with the Toronto PS?

Thank you

Michael

Hello Michael,

Thank you for your interest in the Halton Regional Police Service.

If you met the requirements as listed on our website you could apply as a new applicant, as you are not eligible to apply as an experienced officer.

However based on the information you provided, your OPP employment issues would affect the competitiveness of your file.

Hi Michael,

Please feel free to give me a call but unfortunately, I have received recent direction from the Chief's Management Group with regard to serving officers.

We are not encouraging serving officers to apply. In other words it is unlikely your application would be considered this time.

Whether it's an indication of the economy or our marketing strategies, our applicant pool is full to overflowing with local applicants, just out of college (many having taken the Police Foundations Course).

Serving officers, while they bring a maturity and experience with them that is valuable, our cadet program, resurrected 2 1/2 years ago has provided us with a large, qualified applicant pool.

For a serving officer to be considered they must have successfully completed their probationary period.
