

BENCHMARK: No

COMPLAINT: Male refusing to leave female's (complainant) apartment.

INCIDENT LOCATION: 202-12 Simeon Cr, Apsley.

HISTORY: 14 previous incidents of domestic nature (see LE239a). Complainant (JESSUP) and other (COUCH) have been together for 12 years off and on, living at separate locations. They share two children, but are in the custody of COUCH.

INVESTIGATION: Writer attended with P/C NIE & JACK assisting. Writer spoke to COUCH. NIE & JACK spoke to JESSUP.

JESSUP and COUCH had Thanksgiving Dinner at COUCH's residence on Balmer Road with their children. They left there, leaving the kids in care of his grandmother. They attended JESSUP's apartment between 1630-1700 hrs, to play video games. An argument ensued between them when COUCH wanted sex and JESSUP refused. During the argument, JESSUP asked him to leave. COUCH refused saying she should be reasonable and give him a ride home. JESSUP left and returned with a neighbour from another apartment named "Mike." A brief physical altercation between the males occurred before COUCH left.

There were no injuries on any party involved. There was no indication of any assaultive behaviour or threats between JESSUP or COUCH.

COUCH was waiting for police upon arrival and remained on scene until the completion of the investigation.

JESSUP gave details for the DVSR non-cc report.
